BAB I – PENDAHULUAN

1.1. Gambaran Umum

Sukarno adalah Presiden Pertama Republik Indonesia, ia dilahirkan di Surabaya pada 6 Juni 1901. Sukarno mempunyai latar belakang pendidikan yaitu Eerste Inlandse School di Mojokerto, Europeesche Lagere School (ELS) dan Hoogere Burger School (HBS) di Surabaya (1915) serta Technische Hoge School di Bandung (1921). Sukarno sejak muda telah aktif dalam beberapa organisasi antara lain Tri Koro Dharmo, Jong Java (1918) dan Algemeene Studie Club (1926). Pemikiran dan sikap politik Sukarno mulai terlihat ketika mendirikan Partai Nasional Indonesia (PNI) tahun 1927 dengan program mengusahakan Kemerdekaan Indonesia. Sikap politiknya yang keras terhadap pemerintah kolonial Belanda menyebabkan ia harus dipenjara dan diasingkan beberapa kali.

Pengalaman politiknya tersebut semakin memantapkan pemikiran politiknya terutama berbicara tentang nasionalisme, anti kolonialisme dan imperialisme, persaudaraan antar bangsa, perdamaian dunia, serta keadilan sosial antar bangsa. Pemikiran politik Sukarno tersebut dapat kita lihat dalam beberapa pidato yang sangat penting seperti pidato pembelaan (pledoi) di hadapan hakim kolonial (Bandung, 1930), pidato di Sidang Badan Usaha Persiapan Kemerdekaan (Jakarta, 1 Juni 1945), pidato pada pembukaan Konferensi Asia-Afrika (Bandung, 18 April 1955), pidato di Kongres Amerika Serikat (Washington DC, 17 Mei 1956) dan puncaknya adalah pada pidato di Sidang Umum PBB ke-15 (New York, 30 September 1960).

Pidato monumental berjudul “To Build The World Anew” (Membangun Dunia Kembali) ini merupakan salah satu pidato terbaik yang pernah dikemukakan dalam forum tertinggi organisasi PBB. Di hadapan para pemimpin dunia tersebut, Sukarno kembali menggugat kolonialisme dan imperialisme yang masih terjadi khususnya di wilayah Asia dan Afrika. Sukarno juga menentang keras penggunaan senjata nuklir, kemudian yang paling penting dari pidato ini adalah sebuah ide untuk membentuk tata dunia yang baru di tengah perang dingin, ide untuk merestrukturisasi PBB dan ide untuk menjadikan Pancasila sebagai ideologi alternatif di dunia.

CHAPTER I - INTRODUCTION

1.1. Background

Sukarno is the first President of the Republic of Indonesia. He was born in Surabaya on June 6, 1901. Sukarno has several educational backgrounds namely Hoogere Burger School (HBS) in Surabaya (1915) and Technische Hoger School in Bandung (1921). Since his youth, Sukarno has actively participated in several organizations including Tri Koro Dharmo, Jong Java (1918) and the Algemeene Study Club (1926). Sukarno's political thoughts and attitudes have been seen when he founded the Indonesian National Party (PNI) in 1927 with a program to achieve the independence of Indonesia. His firm political attitude towards the Dutch colonial government caused him to be imprisoned and exiled several times.

His political experiences had matured his political thinking, especially about nationalism, anti-colonialism and imperialism, brotherhood among nations, world peace, and social justice among nations. Sukarno's political thoughts can be seen in some important speeches such as a defense speech (pledoi) before colonial judges (Bandung, 1930), a speech at the Investigating Committee for Preparatory Work for Indonesian Independence Assembly (Jakarta, 1 June 1945), a speech at the opening of the Asian-African Conference (Bandung, April 18, 1955), a speech to the United States Congress (Washington D.C., May 17, 1956) and the most highlighted was his speech at the 15th United Nations General Assembly (New York, September 30, 1960).

This historic speech entitled "To Build The World Anew " is one of the best speeches delivered in the highest forum of the United Nations organization. In front of the world leaders, Sukarno criticized colonialism and imperialism which still occurred, especially in Asia and Africa. Sukarno also strongly opposed the use of nuclear weapons, then the most important part of this speech was an idea to build a new world order in the midst of the cold war, the idea to restructure the United Nations and the idea to make Pancasila as an alternative ideology in the world.

BAB III PENUTUP

Pidato Presiden Sukarno di Sidang Umum PBB ke-15 adalah momen penting dalam sejarah politik luar negeri Indonesia. Presiden Sukarno ketika itu menyampaikan pidato yang berjudul “To Build The World Anew” yang merupakan akumulasi dari pemikiran dan gagasan Sukarno sebelum Indonesia merdeka. Pidato tersebut menggambarkan kerisauan Sukarno terhadap keadaan dunia yang ketika itu dianggap tidak aman, tidak adil dan tidak sejahtera. Beberapa pemikiran universal yang sangat penting dari pidato Sukarno tersebut antara lain tentang nasionalisme, persamaan kedaulatan, anti kolonialisme dan imperialisme, serta perdamaian. Bahkan dalam kesempatan itu, Sukarno menawarkan Pancasila sebagai ideologi alternatif dan juga gagasannya untuk merestrukturisasi PBB dalam rangka menyelesaikan permasalahan di dunia.

Pidato Presiden Sukarno di Sidang Umum PBB ke-15 tentunya memiliki signifikansi bukan hanya dalam sejarah Indonesia tetapi juga sejarah dunia. Oleh karena itu, ANRI melalui Direktorat Pengolahan perlu menyusun Guide Arsip Pidato Presiden Sukarno di Sidang Umum PBB ke-15 untuk semakin memudahkan akses kepada masyarakat sehingga dapat dijadikan bahan pembelajaran dan ilmu pengetahuan serta nilai sejarah perjalanan pembentukan memori kolektif dan identitas bangsa dan dunia.

CHAPTER III CONCLUSION

President Sukarno's speech at the 15th United Nations General Assembly was an important moment in the history of Indonesia's foreign policy. President Sukarno at that time delivered a speech entitled "To Build The World Anew" which was an accumulation of Sukarno's thoughts and ideas before Indonesia's independence. The speech described Sukarno's concern about the state of the world, which at that time was considered unsafe, unfair and unprosperous. Some of the most important universal thoughts from Sukarno's speech included nationalism, equality of sovereignty, anti-colonialism and imperialism, and peace. Even on that occasion, Sukarno offered Pancasila as an alternative ideology and also his idea to restructure the United Nations in order to solve problems in the world.

President Sukarno's speech at the 15th United Nations General Assembly certainly has significance not only in Indonesian history but also in world history. Therefore, ANRI through the Directorate of Arrangement and Description needs to compile a Guide of President Sukarno's Speech at the 15th United Nations General Assembly to further facilitate access to the public so that it can be used as learning material and knowledge as well as the historical value of the journey of forming collective memory and the identity of the nation and the world.
